I . Program Description

One. Basic information

1. Introduction

Academic Education Programs sponsored by the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China is designed to foster high-end business officials and managerial personnel for the recipient countries, offering one-year and two-year master programs as well as three-year doctoral programs for the purpose of educating high-end and inter-disciplinary talent working in the applied fields of government, trade, foreign affairs, agriculture, technology, education, culture and health, building intellectual capacity and facilitating the economic and social development of the recipient countries. These programs provide assistance to governmental officials, research fellows, and senior managerial personnel on their master and doctor education in China, which are fully conducted in English. Admission requirements include a bachelor's degree, relevant working experiences, and decent physical conditions, essential for the high-compact curriculum needed for the degrees.

As for the positive effects and good results brought by these programs in strengthening economic ties and friendship between China and the recipient countries, the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China will continuously intensify its efforts in enlarging the enrollment scale and improving the quality of education.

China Foreign Affairs University (CFAU) is the institution of higher learning which operates under the guidance of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China. It is one of the most distinguished universities in China offering international relations programs.

Since 2011 fall semester, CFAU has offered a one-year Master of International Relations Program, approved by the Ministry of Education of the People's Republic of China. The program is open to students from developing countries with professional background of International Relations, Diplomacy, International Politics, Comparative Politics, Political Theory and World History, and with the relevant ability of research. The target of the program is to provide professional training for personnel in Foreign Service, Higher Education and Research Institutes.

We believe that by attending the programs and achieving the degrees, you will embrace a successful career and brighter future.

2. Prospective Students:

Applicants must have a bachelor's degree or equivalent in areas related to politics. Previous work experience in International Relations preferred.

3. Program Objective:

Academic Education Programs Sponsored by Ministry of Commerce PRC

(1) To build up the students' knowledge of the contemporary International Relations and China's foreign policy; (2) to provide systematic training in methods and theories of international relations; (3) to enhance the students' analytical skills and abilities to deal with foreign policy issues.

Focus of the program will be on applying multidisciplinary perspectives, theories, and methodologies in order to further understand the history and current situation of International Relations. Students' theoretical training will be combined with field work, policy study projects, internships, and related extra-curricular activities.

Graduates of the program will be distinguished by their mastery of International Relations theories and research methods, ability to conduct original policy analysis, and outstanding leadership skills in a variety of foreign affairs environments.

4. Enrollment Plan:

In 2026 we have a plan to enroll 15 students in our one-year master program of International Relations taught in English.

5. Financial Support

(1) Fees related to the studies including tuition fees, teaching materials fees, research fees, English teaching fees, graduation thesis guidance fees will be covered;

(2) Provide free on-campus accommodation;

(3) Provide living allowance: 3000 yuan/person/month; will be issued on a monthly basis according to student's actual time in China;

(4) Provide one-time relocation fee: 3000 yuan/person;

(5) Provide comprehensive medical insurance in China;

(6) Provide a free round-trip international flight ticket;

(7) All degree students are required to attend the annual assessment;

(8) Other fees shall be managed and used by the Ministry of Commerce or the university, and shall not be paid to students. The Ministry of Commerce provides financial assistance only within the academic year. Students who delay graduation for personal reasons will not receive continued funding.

The scholarship will refer to Chinese Government Scholarship standard for overseas master students and be approved by the Ministry of Commerce of China.

If a student expects to have his/her spouse, children, relatives or friends to visit him/her during the stay in Beijing, the visitors will have to bear all the expenses by him/herself. MOFCOM and the university are not responsible for taking care of them.

Two. About China Foreign Affairs University

1. Introduction to China Foreign Affairs University

China Foreign Affairs University (CFAU) grooms China's most promising young minds by preparing them for careers in China's diplomacy and foreign services. Directly affiliated with China's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, CFAU offers a unique educational experience that prides itself in intellectual integrity and academic excellence. CFAU was founded in September of 1955 at the suggestion of the late Premier Zhou Enlai. Premier Zhou wrote the Chinese name of the University using his own signature. The late Vice Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Chen Yi, served as the first president of CFAU. The current CFAU president is Professor Gao Fei, China's foremost expert in international relations studies.

In September 2012, former Premier Wen Jiabao acknowledged CFAU as the "Cradle of Chinese Diplomats".

The Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Finance and the National Development and Reform Commission jointly released a selected list of the country's construction plan of world-class universities and first-class disciplines known as the "Double First-Class" initiative on September 21, 2017. CFAU ranks among the top 95 disciplines in the country according to the list.

CFAU has Ph.D., MA, BA students and use multi-standard, multilevel, multiform as the university management system. The University has eight departments and one specialized institute focusing on education & research, including the Department of Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs Management, the Department of English & International Studies, the Department of Foreign Languages, the Department of International Law, the Department of Basic Education, the Department of Graduate Studies, the School of International Economics, the School of International Education, and the Institute of International Relations. Additionally, CFAU has almost thirty research institutes and centers, including the Institute of Asian Studies, the Institute of International Law, the Chinese Foreign Policy Studies Center as well as the Research Center for Community with a Shared Future for Mankind. Students are able to specialize in subjects such as diplomatic studies, English, French, Japanese, International Law, International Economics & Trade, International Finance, etc.

CFAU was the first Chinese university to offer Diplomatic Studies as a major at the undergraduate level, and was also amongst the first group to confer Ph.D. and Master Degrees in International Relations and Diplomatic Studies. China National Association for International Studies and Chinese Society of International Law, two nation-level academic organizations, establish their secretariats on CFAU campus. The Research Centre for Beijing International Exchanges and Foreign Affairs Administration, both under the auspice of the Beijing municipality, are also based at the University.

Over the past 70 years, China Foreign Affairs University has graduated close to 20000 students. Amongst its alumni, approximately 500 have served as ambassadors. In 2025, there are around 2000 Chinese students and around 90 international students from more than 30 countries enrolled at CFAU.

Academic Education Programs Sponsored by Ministry of Commerce PRC

In addition, entrusted by the ministry of foreign affairs and ministry of commerce of China, CFAU has been organizing professional programs for diplomats and media professionals from foreign countries for years. The training programs cover the Chinese language, International Relations, Diplomacy, National Conditions of China, Media, etc. By the end of 2025, around 4710 participants from more than 160 countries have joined the programs. In the year of 2008, authorized by the State Council of China, CFAU became one of the first five national foreign training centers in China.

CFAU holds two campuses: the old campus of CFAU (Zhanlan Road Campus) is located in the Xicheng District of Beijing; the new campus (Shahe Campus) is in Changping District and around 30km to the downtown area. Neighboring with other four famous universities, Shahe Campus provides beautiful surroundings and advanced facilities.

2. Introduction to the department

The Institute of International Relations (IIR) of China Foreign Affairs University, originally the Institute for International History Studies (IIHS), was founded in 1955 as the earliest research and teaching institutes on international affairs in China. It was renamed as IIR in 1984 with the approval of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China. The Institute was accredited with the power to confer M.A. & Ph.D. degrees respectively in 1979 and 1984.

After continuous hard work, the institute has an academic team featuring leading PhD supervisors. The team members have intensive overseas experience, outstanding academic records and great communication skills. The IIR now has 9 Ph.D. supervisors, 12 professors, 6 associate professors and 4 lecturers. All of them have Doctor's degree. Many of them served in important positions in international academic associations at home and abroad. Since 1991, 13 faculty members have received special allowance from the State Council for their academic achievement. Professor Qin Yaqing and Professor Wang Fan received the "Award for Exceptional Educators in Beijing" respectively in 2006 and 2009. The institute also has a superb team of adjunct professors, who are either famous professors or senior diplomats. With their policy and theoretical insights, visions for academic innovation and mastery of foreign languages, these adjunct professors add to the appeal of the institute.

Since 2004, China Foreign Affairs University has been one of only a couple of universities in China whose international relations discipline is the state's key discipline. In 2009, the "Contemporary International Relations Teaching Team" won the award of "Excellent Teaching Team in Beijing". In 2011, the discipline of international relations won the Award of National Level Key Discipline.

Since 1996, the institute consecutively invited experts and scholars from the United States, Great Britain, Russia, Ukraine, the Netherlands, Italy, Czech Republic, and Poland to give lectures or participate in joint research projects. It has established routine faculty and graduate students exchanges programs with Georgia University, Russia University of Foreign Affairs, Moscow University of International Relations, LUSS University of Italy, and Minsk University. The Institute invites renowned Chinese and foreign scholars to give lectures and hosts several influential international seminars, including inviting professor Michael McFaul from Stanford University to give lecture on ‘The China-US-Russia Relations Under Trump 2.0’ (2025). Other conferences and seminars include ‘China and Europe’s Role in Global Strategic Stability Conference’ (2025), ‘Seminar on Global Outer Space Security’ (2025), ‘2025 China-Japan-ROK UN Association Presidents Trilateral Meeting and the 13th Seminar for China-Japan-ROK Youth’ (2025), ‘Closed-Door Seminar on Outer Space and Strategic Stability’ (2025), ‘Dialogue on China-Europe Global Strategic Stability’ (2025), ‘Seminar on China-ASEAN Relation Under Global Transition’ (2025), ‘Seminar on China-US-Russia Relations and the Development of SCO’ (2025), ‘Conference on Curriculum Building in Global Security’ (2024), ‘Virtual Seminar on China-US Relations’ (2024), ‘Curriculum and Capacity Building on International Relation Disciplines’ (2023), ‘US Mid-term Election and the Trend of China-US Relation’ (2022), ‘Russia-Ukraine Conflict: Geopolitical Superpower, Regional Security and Global Order Conference’ (2022), ‘Asia-Pacific Situation after the US Election and China-US Relation Conference’ (2020), ‘Seminar on Global History of WWII’ (2020). Through these international academic exchanges, the faculty members broaden their academic horizons and learn from the latest research and methods from abroad, deepen exchanges and understanding, and keep the momentum of the institute.

The IIR has some specializations: East Asian Regional Cooperation and International Security. Within these areas, the faculty members produced a series of first-class trail-blazer publications with international influence.

After years of construction, the IIR now has relatively complete and systematic course systems, we offer more than 80 courses to undergraduate, double degrees, graduate and doctoral students. Our well-known courses include, International Relations History, Theory of International Relations, Methodology of International Relations, Economic Diplomacy, Introduction to International Security, Globalization and Global Governance, Thoughts of International Relations, and courses of area studies like Contemporary American Diplomacy, EU Studies, Middle East Studies, Asia-Pacific Studies, Soviet and Russian Studies and Japan Studies. Among them, “IR Theory after WWII” and “Theory of International Relations” are Excellent Course in Beijing, US-European Relations won the award of National Bilingual Teaching Demonstration Course. A series of courses are excellent courses in China Foreign Affairs University.

3. Living conditions

Beijing has warm temperate semi-humid, typical continental monsoon climate characterized by hot and rainy summers, cold and dry winters. Spring and autumn is short. Students of the master program of International Relations will stay in single rooms on Shahe campus of CFAU. The room offers central heating and 24hour hot water supply and is equipped with air conditioning, cable TV hookups, including CNN, study table, bookshelf, and telephone. For other services such as laundry, international telephone card, fax, internet and etc., you can consult with the reception desk.

2. Teaching methods

The International Relations program is taught in English. Courses are given through workshops, seminars, lectures, discussion groups, and team or individual projects. We will also arrange students to visit other cities to learn more about China's national conditions such as economy and culture.

3. Length of study

Students are expected to complete the program in one year. Time table of the year:

The first semester: Beginning of September, 2026-End of January, 2027.

Academic Education Programs Sponsored by Ministry of Commerce PRC

Winter Vacation: End of January -End of February, 2027.

The second semester: End of February – Beginning of July, 2027.

Students are required to finish the full time course-work, thesis writing and thesis defense by the end of the academic year.

4. Thesis

(1) Thesis

Students should find their own research topics related to international relations and diplomacy, as a part of thesis research preparation. Towards the end of the first semester, faculty members who are experts in their specializations will be invited as potential thesis supervisors, and the Institute of International Relations of CFAU will help students choose their supervisors. The thesis is expected to combine theoretical perspectives, analytical skills and practical experiences of international relations and foreign policy, and aims at solving practical problems. Students must pass oral defense for the thesis.
